A SURPRISE WEDDING.

Mr. Archie Gant and Miss Maude Baker Married in Nashville Yesterday.

CUPID'S SILENT WORK.

Sweethearts For Some Time Without Knowledge of Their Friends.

"It is the unexpected that always happens."

Everybody supposed that the heart of Archie Gant, one of the best known young bachelors in the city, was invulnerable to Cupid's darts, and the news yesterday morning that he had taken an early train for Nashville, where he would be married, to Miss Maude Baker, caused as much surprise as would a thunderbolt from a clear sky.

Reports were to the effect that Miss Baker, late book-keeper for Cook & Higgins, the druggists, had preceded Mr. Gant to Nashville on the 5:18 train Tuesday evening.

Silently as Cupid had been getting in its work, Mr. Gant's closest friends were not hoodwinked, and now that Archie has become a benedict, these friends are giving out many little stories of Mr. Gant spending most of his idle hours about the store where his inamorata had been employed for nearly two years.

The young lady who has won the heart of the only son of Mr. Henry C. Gant, President of the Bank of Hopkinsville, is pretty beyond the average, intelligent and of a sweet disposition that wins the admiration of every new acquaintance.

Mr. Gant has been one of the book-keepers in the bank of which his father is president since early boyhood, in fact he has grown up in the bank and has never gone into society, caring more for the sport of hunting and fishing and the companionship of close friends than for the pleasures to be derived from mingling in society circles. Everybody will wish Archie and his bonnie bride a full realization of their fondest dreams.

DIED OF DROPSY.

Capt. Ben Terry Passes Away in Cadiz.

Capt. Benjamin D. Terry, a prominent citizen of Cadiz, and former Confederate soldier, died Tuesday morning of dropsy. He had been in bad health for some time, and was attacked with jaundice two months ago. Capt. Terry was 72 years old and a bachelor. He is survived by two brothers, Admiral Silas Terry, of the U. S. Navy, and F. G. Terry, of Cadiz. The interment took place yesterday afternoon in East End Cemetery, Cadiz.

REYNARD'S RAID.

Red Fox Kills Many Young Chickens.

A fox raided the henry of Mr. M. D. Meacham, just west of the city, a few nights ago, and killed about thirty spring chickens. Mr. Meacham had been missing his young chickens for some time and he was at a loss to know what had become of them. Hearing a noise in his hen-house, he arose just in time to see a large red fox trot away. On going to the enclosure he found that Reynard had made a heavy haul this time.

Farmers' Meeting.

Next Monday is the day for the farmers' meeting at Moayon's hall. Come early, report promptly and see that your neighbor is here. Chairman Radford wants every farmer who can possibly leave home to be on hand.

FINE WEATHER FOR CARNIVAL.

Attractions Drawing Large Crowds Both Day and Night.

SOME GOOD FREE SHOWS

Everything Moving Along Smoothly and a Great Time For All.

The Carnival is now at its height and the weather has been everything that could be desired for such an occasion. About 1,500 or 2,000 people were out Tuesday night and it was expected that the 'crowd' would be more than doubled last night. The many free attractions are among the best ever seen on a carnival ground here, while the tented exhibitions are of a character that are bound to please the public. The moving pictures are pronounced among the best, while the troupe of Japanese acrobats do stunts that seem utterly beyond human accomplishment. The electric fountain is one of the most popular attractions on the grounds. Edison's views of the destruction of San Francisco is to be shown tonight for the first time. Bard, in his daring act of leaping the gap, is one of the free attractions that claims more than its share of spectators twice each day. Taken altogether, everything is going on at "Mercer Park" in a way that bids fair to be a prosperous week for Mr. Robinson and the firemen and Pythians.

It would be useless to attempt to tell what you will see by going out to the grounds—you must go and see for yourself. If you are morose or have some trouble on your mind go out tonight and see the young people enjoy themselves. You will catch the infection and forget every trouble for the time. What if some mischievous girl does fill your gaping mouth with confetti? When you get through laughing you will feel like another person. And then there is the cry of the speller, the music(?) of the flying-jenny, the music of the bands, the play of the fountain (if you go inside the enclosure), the bustling moving crowd, and hundreds of other things that make you throw care to the winds, and you live and breathe like other people. You owe it to yourself to go—and eat peanuts and popcorn if you want to get all the good out of the day.

The management is composed of gentlemen and they allow nothing but the best of treatment to their patrons, while the members of the Uniform Rank K. P.'s and the fire department are to be seen everywhere, keeping a strict watch on everything going on. It's a nice place to go, and no one need fear he will see or hear anything not altogether proper.

"The Electric Fountain."

While all of the shows on the ground are first-class, clean and worthy of patronage, there is one which deserves special mention, as it is thought by many to be the best the Company offers. This is the "Electric Fountain," which is located just to the left of the gate as you enter the park. The sight presented is beautiful in the extreme and at the wind up of each performance when the water is being forced to a height of probably 40 feet in the air and the sky-rockets begin to fire, one is very apt to agree with the "Governor," Col. Sam F. Joseph, the advertising agent for the Company, when he says "it is a dollar show for fifteen cents."

Show People Wed.

Geo. E. Backenstoe and Miss Alice Travers were married Monday. The groom is the owner of the carnival show, "Congo, the Leopard Boy," and the bride is the young lady who sell tickets at the door.

GRAND JURY.

Will Likely Investigate Recent Shooting Affair.

The trial of Arthur Oglesby and Frank Oglesby, Jr., the negroes charged with maliciously shooting and wounding with intent to kill has not been held and the case will probably go over to the grand jury which will convene here next week. The case was set for trial last Monday, but Frank Oglesby, father of the boys, who was shot, failed to appear. The shooting occurred near The Square, during a family row about two weeks ago. It is said that old man Oglesby is now in Nashville.

Southern peaches have already made their appearance, and water-melons will soon follow.

PATROL WAGON HORSE.

Transferred From The Fire Department Tuesday.

Councilmen Jackson and Ware this week purchased from John Gray a fine black horse for the fire department. He was bargained for some time ago, but the delivery was delayed until he could recover from a slight injury he sustained in shipping. He will be worked with the white horse purchased about two months ago. They make a strikingly handsome team. The big bay horse named Tom has been transferred to the police department and will be worked to the patrol wagon or used for mounted police service, as may be required.

It was expected that work would begin to-day on the building to adjoin Grace Episcopal church.
